Dear Valued Customer

RFB 2004, 2005, 2006 AND 2007/2015: TRANSVERSAL CONTRACTS FOR PERSONAL COMPUTERS, COMPUTER PERIPHERALS, CONSUMABLES AND SERVICES NEW PORTAL

In this communication is the letter dated 20 December 2016 which was shared regarding the status of the gCommerce platform and its readiness for use. Subsequent to that a lot of work was embarked upon between SITA and the DPSA.

The progress is that the gCommerce platform for RFB 2004; 2005 is now available for client use and has already been communicated to the DPSA on the 15 February 2017 (See the attached letter addressed to the Director General of the DPSA) This letter is aimed communicating the interim process to be used for procurement of Computers, Computer Peripherals; Consumables and Services through the new portal.

Please note that this communication on gCommerce availability has been issued to the GITOC members on the 17 February 2017 to ensure immediate use and transacting through the portal. An Annexure with the engagement model is also attached.

Kindly be assured of SITA's full attention on this critical matter and we sincerely thank you and your department for the support and understanding of this matter. SITA will continue to keep accounting officers updated on all key developments on the g-Commerce service.

Yours Sincerely,

pp.
