SITA SCAM ALERT: LEARNERSHIP ADVERTISEMENT

It has come to SITA's attention of a fraudulent learnership advert being circulated on some social media platforms.

Kindly be advised that this is a fake advertisement - that is targeting and preying on citizens' deepest need for work or job opportunities.

Kindly be advised of the following:

- SITA is currently not recruiting for any learnership opportunities.
- Members of the public are advised that all STA employment or learnership opportunities are advertised on our official website which can be accessed on www.sita.co.za/vacancies or on our relevant SITA social media platforms.
- The official SITA sites are listed below:

www.sita.co.za

Twitter: @sitasocLtd

Facebook: State Information Technology Agency SOC Ltd @sitasocLtd

LinkedIn: SITA SOC (Ltd)

- These are the only reliable platforms and must be used to double check information that relates to work or learnership opportunities.
- All applicants should verify the SITA addresses on our official platforms, should they be invited to an interview.
- Please be vigilant and do not be drawn into any scam trying to request money or to lure people to suspicious venues.
- Kindly note that SITA will not be held liable or responsible for any damages or losses that might be incurred due to the fraudulent activities.

Please report any suspicious activities or scams to the SITA Ethics line: on 0800 111 180
